Introduction

Accessibility for everyone is key to ensuring that everyone feels welcomed and is able to get the information that they desire.

This Accessibility Policy has been created to explain how CSAWCC will work to ensure accessibility for all websites, social media, and other materials.

The CSAWCC reserves the right to change this Accessibility Policy and it may be updated periodically. Please check for changes regularly.

Who is the CSAWCC?

For purposes of this Policy, “the CSAWCC” means the Canadian South Asian Women's Chamber of Commerce.

Accountability

The CSAWCC is accountable for all personal information under its control. Any questions about the CSAWCC's handling of personal information should be directed to info@csawcc-ccfsa.ca. Please see below for more information about the process of referring questions about the CSAWCC's handling of personal information.

Accessibility Assistance

If you have difficulty using or accessing any element of this website or any official social media platform or CSAWCC materials, please email us at info@csawcc-ccfsa.ca and we will work with you to provide the information you seek through a communication method that is accessible to you consistently with applicable law.

Accessibility Goal

CSAWCC desires to provide a positive customer experience to everyone who may engage with our content and we aim to promote accessibility and inclusion. Our goal is to permit people to successfully gather information through our website, social media platforms, and any other official means of communication. Whether you are using assistive technologies like a screen reader, a magnifier, voice recognition software, or captions for videos, our goal is to make your use of our website a successful and enjoyable experience.

Actions

We are taking a variety of steps and devoting resources to further enhance the accessibility of our website. If you feel like there could be improvement within a select area or for a select platform, please email info@csawcc-ccfsa.ca.

Ongoing Effort

Although we are proud of the efforts that we have completed and that are in progress, we know that accessibility needs change and are committed to ensuring our efforts of access for everyone.

Official Languages

Many social media platforms and websites may have multiple language options and provide instructions on how to set your preferences. CSAWCC respects the Official Languages Act and is committed to ensuring that our information and content is available in both French and English. If the content that you are looking for is not available in its other language counterpart, please email info@csawcc-ccfsa.ca with the list of content that you will like to see and in the official language you are requesting it in.

Feedback

Please contact us if you have any feedback or suggestions as to how we could improve the accessibility of this website, any social media platform, or any other official means of communication.
